About Tri-County Enterprises:

Starting in 1997 as "Tri-County Seamless Gutters" we have grown and gained the confidence of many homeowners and general contractors in the Cedar Rapids area. In the early 2000s we added roofing to our services and became Tri-County Enterprises.

Today, Tri-County employs skilled installers, estimators, and office staff. Every day in business is a testament to the quality of people we hire and the teamwork that our employees build together! We have made it our mission to exceed the expectations of our clients and employees.
